

View this email in your browser

Designing Buildings Wiki

Newsletter 13 March 2020

Featured articles and news

Carbon capture

Using CO2 to make construction products and materials.

Budget 2020

The key announcements for the construction industry.

Timber

11 things you didn't know about wood.

Engineering wellbeing

BSRIA's Building4Wellbeing event returns for the second year.

BIM for energy efficiency

Decarbonising by informed decision-making.

BIM for energy efficiency
Decarbonising the built environment through informed decision-making using digital simulation and analysis

Ioan Petri and Iacina Rogul

ICE state of the nation

How can we help achieve net zero?

Around the web

Gov.uk, Mar 12

Housing Secretary plans to modernise the planning system.

Download your free VELUX Commercial WHITEPAPER

Designing daylight to the new European Standard EN 17037

Construction Manager, Mar 11

Sale of Grenfell insulation compared to the horse meat scandal.

CIOB, Mar 11

CIOB response to the Budget.

Raconteur, Feb 27

How driverless cars will affect insurance.

IHBC, Mar 10

A look back at a timber conservation archive.

tci, Mar 10

Appeal court confirms a payroll firm is a contractor.

BIM+, Mar 11

How the Met Office is reaping the benefits of a digital twin.

Costain, Mar 11

Costain seeks £100m equity injection, partly due to project bank accounts.

Subscribe to this newsletter

Designing Buildings Wiki is supported by:

Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners
Institution of Civil Engineers
BRE Trust

The Institute of Historic Building Conservation
Chartered Institute of Building
BSRIA
ECA

Chartered Institute of Architectural Technologists

Our mailing address is:

Designing Buildings
Kirkleas
Old Road
Buckland, Surrey RH3 7DZ
United Kingdom

Update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.