

Newsletter 21 July 2020 | View this email in your browser
Designing Buildings Wiki

Featured articles and news

Measuring damp

All techniques for assessing moisture in porous materials have their limitations.

BRE welcomes the Value Toolkit

Transforming the way decisions are made.

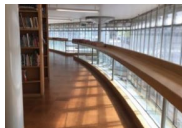

An Introduction To The Value Toolkit
July 2020

Collaborative refurbishment

Cambridge University's Seeley Library has a thoughtful update.

How long should buildings last?

Re-evaluating design life.

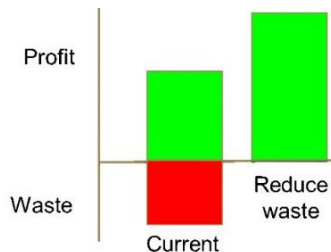

Restoration stories

Patina and paint in old London houses. Book review.

Why quality matters

'Quality' is still misunderstood. It's about enhancing profit and driving improvement.

Around the web

Construction Enquirer, July 20

First Chief Inspector of Buildings to be recruited this year.

IHBC, July 18

CITB survey - what does net zero mean to your business?

Irish Times, July 20

Dublin construction site closes after workers test positive for COVID-19.

The Guardian, July 20

Grenfell contractor accused of taking funds while switching to cheaper cladding.

Gov.uk, Jul 19

Changing places toilets will be compulsory for new public buildings.

SCN, July 16

ICE's online museum displays Scotland's civil engineering highlights.

Construction Enquirer, July 16

Low fee adjudication service for claims up to £100k.