

Newsletter 12 August 2022 | View on the web

Features and news

Buildings, occupants and heat
BSRIA Technical Director reflects on recent weather patterns.

Government mandates detectors
New rules come into force on October 1st.

IPA Major projects report
80% of major government projects are rated red or amber.

CIOB Award finalists
70 managers and organisations shortlisted.

Which way up should you lay bricks?
The answer is clear - but people still get it wrong.

Download your FREE
WHITEPAPER

The 7 most used environmental certification schemes

Around the web

CIAT, August 2
Government pledges £635m for low-carbon heating.

ECA Today, August 4
Survey seeks insights into roof ladder use.

IHBC, August 9
IHBC response to Levelling-Up and Regeneration Bill.

ECA Today, August 4
Northern Powergrid businesses incentivised to go low-carbon.

BIM+, August 3
What data do homeowners need from BIM?

8 million people use Designing Buildings to find construction industry knowledge every year. Write an article and they will also find out about you.

Subscribe to this newsletter

