

Newsletter 5 March 2021 | View this email in your browser
Designing Buildings Wiki

Featured articles and news

Budget 2021

Payback and the plan for growth.

A bridge too far?

Public opinion on the Scotland - Northern Ireland link.

Open plan falls out of fashion

Home-based workers move to closed plan layouts.

Compressor trends

Expanding markets and changes in technology.

Product testing

Will the Building Safety Bill go far enough?

HORSA huts

Post-war prefab classrooms were unpopular but ubiquitous.

Around the web

City A.M., Mar 4

A February rebound for construction.

Housing Today, Mar 3

London Plan published.

PBC Today, Mar 2

COVID causes an increase in disputes.

Construction Enquirer, Mar 1

Plan to house site workers on cruise ships.

The Guardian, Mar 3

HS2 is rewinding the Chilterns.

tci, Mar 3

Drones to find sites for tidal turbines.

Dezeen, Mar 3

UV device kills viruses in public spaces.

PBC Today, Mar 1

Detonation of WWII bomb in Exeter causes damage.