Fair payment charter

The Construction Leadership Council has launched the Construction Supply Chain Payment Charter. But will it make a difference?

Net contribution clauses

The original decision in the case of West v IFA has been overturned by the Court of Appeal. Najma Dunnett says, "This case illustrates the significance of ensuring the clear drafting of net contribution clauses and that they are specifically brought to the attention of consumer clients..."

Accessible London

The GLA has published draft supplementary planning guidance for consultation, 'Accessible London: Achieving an Inclusive Environment'.

Gatwick second runway

Opinion piece on the consultation for Gatwick's three development options. Is option 3 the only realistic proposal?

Superhomes

Research finds that low-carbon retrofit superhome clients are not concerned by payback times, they are more interested in comfort.

Planning court

The new planning court has opened early as part of the government's wider strategy for long-term economic recovery.

Renewable heat incentive

The new Domestic Renewable Heat Incentive scheme has been launched... and the Renewable Heat Premium Payment scheme closed.
