02 · INITIAL RECORD

What's there?

A montage drawing of the Madeley Transfer Area and text with diagrams describing faculty areas and mobile learning units.

What attracts attention?

The railway is used to both connect faculty areas and to accommodate mobile learning units. Assembly zones are related to existing industrial sidings, while the units are differentiated by function and designed for handling, combination and relocation.

Recollection · 1967

To be recorded, if recalled.

03 · INVESTIGATION

Questions to investigate

- * Are the learning units simply movable buildings, or are they components of a system whose organisation can change over time?

Further examination

Examine the relationship between territorial distribution, faculty-area layout and individual learning-unit configuration.
