Designing Buildings Wiki

The construction industry knowledge base

Featured articles and news

Fuel poverty

ACE study finds UK energy efficiency and fuel poverty compare badly with housing in other European countries.

Taiwan Taoyuan International

Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners win the competition to design a major new terminal for Taiwan Taoyuan International Airport.

Procuring steel for major projects

New government measures introduced to try and tackle the problems faced by the UK steel industry.

Housing and planning briefing note

The government has published a briefing note providing further information on the nationally significant infrastructure planning clause of the Housing and Planning Bill.

Osborne launches National Infrastructure Commission

Chancellor announces National Infrastructure Commission to prioritise £100bn spending by 2020.

Risk of overheating

Report highlights the risk of overheating in urban buildings.

Around the web

Raconteur 5 November

As technology and the city unite through the Internet of Things, enterprises are set to cash in on the transformation of urban life.

BBC 5 November

Post-war architecture continues to divide opinion. Here are 10 of the most controversial buildings.

The Guardian 3 November

The London that might have been - a collection of pictures of buildings that were designed but never built.

Gov.uk 2 November

Brandon Lewis extols the virtues of neighbourhood planning during the second reading of the Housing and Planning Bill.

BIM plus 2 November

Is BIM being scuppered by disclaimers in tender documents that limit the reliance that can be placed on models?

GCR 30 October

After more than 130 years, Gaudi's Sagrada Familia enters its final stage of construction.

Designing Buildings Wiki is supported by:

Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners
Institution of Civil Engineers
BRE Trust
Buro Happold
Development Securities PLC
Chartered Institute of Building
BSRIA

Share   Tweet   Forward

Facebook   Twitter   Website   Email   Google Plus   LinkedIn   YouTube