

Newsletter 6 July 2021 | View this email in your browser

Designing Buildings Wiki

Featured articles and news

6,000 homes with defective blockwork

CIOB issues a statement about the mica scandal.

Soft Landings Conference

Smoothing the path to net zero - highlights of BSRIA's interactive event.

New neighbours in Washington DC

How to assess historic value and enhance character.

The workings of BSBG

Architectural technology, training and mentoring are at the core of operations.

Looking to join in?

We're here to help. Check out our top tips for contributing to Designing Buildings Wiki.

Perpendicular Gothic

Some historians claim this was the first authentically English style.

Around the web

Construction Enquirer, July 5

Building Safety Bill published.

The Guardian, July 5

Explosives bring down Florida condo.

GCR, July 5

US contractors call for an end to Covid support to get workers back on site.

SCN, July 1

Alice Butler named Scotland's Emerging Engineer 2021.

BBC, June 30

Right to repair rules come into force.

BIM+, June 30

Six anti-BIM myths debunked.